Taishaku-ji Temple

There are many small alleys in Shimonohama, along them, are shrines and temples that blend effortlessly into the town, easy to drop into when passing by. The photo shows Taishaku-ji Temple. Also, right next to this temple is a stone staircase that leads to Noriba Shinto Shrine.

WalkingRoute

Jizobana Observatory – Mitahama Beach

If you continue through the narrow streets lined with inns to the north, you will come across the road to Mitahama Beach. In the beach area, there are volcanic rocks that are geometrically shaped with fissures. They have been formed by lava flow that cooled and solidified over a wide area when there was volcanic activity here in ancient times. The main attraction for visitors to this area is to visualize ancient times while gazing at the many rare and strangely shaped rocks. Although Kasumi Bay is quite large, this area is one of its highlights on its western side.
